At which time and places the qualified electors will elect by ballot:

TWENTY-SIX PERSONS to be Electors of PRESIDENT and VICE PRESIDENT of the United States.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, That every person excepting Justices of the Peace who shall hold any office or appointment of profit or trust under the United States, or of this State, or any city or corporated district, whether a commissioned officer or otherwise, a subordinate officer or agent who is or shall be employed under the legislative, executive or judiciary department of this State, or of any city, or of any incorporated district, and also, that every member of Congress and of the State Legislature, and of the select or common council of any city, or commissioners of any incorporated district, is by law incapable of holding or exercising at the time, the office or appointment of Judge, Inspector or Clerk of any election of this Commonwealth, and that no Inspector, Judge or other officer of such election shall be elegible to be then voted for.

And the said act of assembly entitled "an act relating to elections of this Commonwealth," passed July 2, 1819, further provides as follows, viz:

"That the Inspector and Judges shall meet at the respective places appointed for holding the election in the district at which they respectively belong, before 8 o'clock in the morning of the SECOND TUESDAY OF OCTOBER, and each said inspector shall appoint one clerk, who shall be a qualified voter of such district.

"In case the person who shall have received the second highest number of votes for inspector shall not attend on the day of any election, then the person who shall have received the second highest number of votes for Judge at the next preceding election shall act as an Inspector in his place. And in case the person who shall have received the highest number of votes for Inspector shall not attend, the person elected Judge shall appoint an Inspector in his place; and in case the person elected a Judge shall not attend, then the Inspector who received the highest number of votes shall appoint a Judge in his place; and if any vacancy shall continue in the board for the space of one hour after the time fixed by law for the opening of the election the qualified voters of the township, ward or district for which such officer shall have been elected, present at the place of election, shall elect one of their number to fill such vacancy.

"It shall be the duty of the several assessors respectively to attend at the place of holding every general, special or township election, during the whole time such election is kept open, for the purpose of giving information to the Inspectors and Judge, when called on, in relation to the right of any person assessed by them to vote at such election, and on such other matters in relation to the assessment of voters, as the said Inspectors or ether of them shall from time to time require.

"No person shall be permitted to vote at any election as aforesaid, than a white citizen of the age of twenty-one or more, who shall have resided in this State at least one year, and in the election district where he offers to vote, ten days immediately preceding such election, and within two years paid a State or County tax, which shall have been assessed at least ten days before the election. But a citizen of the United States who has previously been a qualified voter of this State and removed therefrom and returned, and who shall have resided in the election district and paid taxes aforesaid, shall be entitled to vote after residing in this State six months. Provided, That the white freemen, citizens of the United States, between the age of twenty-one and twenty two years who have resided in the election district ten days as aforesaid shall be entitled to vote, although they shall not have paid tax.

"No person shall be permitted to vote whose name is not contained in the list of taxable inhabitants, furnished by the Commissioners, unless: First, he produce a receipt of payment, within two years of State or County tax assessed agreeably to the Constitution, and give satisfactory evidence on his own oath or affirmation of another that he has paid such a tax, or in failure to produce a receipt shall make oath to the payment thereof; or second, if he claim a right to vote by being an elector between the age of twenty-one and twenty-two years shall depose on oath or affirmation, that he has resided in the State at least one year before his application, and make such proof of residence in the district as is required by this act, and that he does verily believe from the account given him that he is of the age aforesaid, and gives such other evidence as is required by this act, whereupon the name of the person so admitted to vote shall be inserted in the alphabetical list by the Inspector, and a note made opposite thereto by writing the word "tax," if he shall be admitted to vote by reason of having paid tax, and the word "age" if he shall be admitted to vote by reason of age, and in either case the reason of such a vote shall be called out to the clerks, who shall make a like note in the list of voters kept by them.

"In all cases where the name of the person claiming to vote is not found on the list furnished by the Commissioners, or his right to vote whether found thereon or not, is objected to by any qualified citizen, it shall be the duty of the Inspectors to examine such person on oath as to his qualifications, and if he claims to have resided within the State for one year or more, his oath shall be sufficient proof thereof, but he shall make proof by at least one competent witness, who shall be a qualified elector, that he has resided within the district for more than ten days immediately preceding said election and shall also swear that his bona fide residence, in pursuance of his lawful calling is within the district, and that he did not remove within the district for the purpose of voting.

"Every person qualified as aforesaid, and who shall make due proof if required, of his residence and payment of taxes aforesaid, shall be admitted to vote in the township, ward or district in which he shall reside.

"If any person shall prevent or attempt to prevent any officer of an election, under this act from holding such election, or use or threaten any violence to any such officer, and shall interrupt or improperly interfere with him in the execution of peace of such election, or shall use or practice intimidation, threats, force or violence, with the design to influence unduly or overawe any elector, or prevent him from voting, or to restrain the freedom of choice, such persons on conviction shall be fined in any sum not exceeding five hundred dollars, to be imprisoned for any time not less than one nor more than twelve months, and if it shall be shown to the court where the trial of such offence shall be had, that the person so offending was not a resident of the city, ward or district where the said offence was committed, and not entitled to vote therein, on conviction, he shall be sentenced to pay a fine not less than one hundred or more than one thousand dollars, and be imprisoned not less than six months nor more than two years.

Election Proclamation.

"If any person or persons shall make any bet or wager upon the result of an election within the Commonwealth, or shall offer to make any such bet or wager, either by verbal proclamation thereof, or by any written or printed advertisement, or invite any person or persons to make such bet or wager, upon conviction thereof he or they shall forfeit and pay three times the amount so bet or offered to be bet.

And the election laws of the Commonwealth further provide that "The Inspectors, Judges and clerks shall, before entering on the duties of their offices, severally take and subscribe the oath or affirmation hereinafter directed, which shall be administered to them by any judge, alderman or justice of the peace, but if no such magistrate be present, one of the inspectors of the election shall administer the oath or affirmation to the other judge and inspector, and then the inspector so qualified shall administer the oath or affirmation to him.

"The inspectors, judge and clerks required by law to hold township and general elections, shall take and subscribe the several oaths and affirmations, required by the 19th, 20th and 21st sections of the act of the 2d day of July 1839, entitled "An act relating to the elections of this commonwealth," which oaths or affirmations shall be prepared and administered in the manner prescribed in the 18th and 22d sections of said act, and in addition to the power conferred by the 18th section of said act, the judge, or either of the inspectors, shall have power to administer the oaths prescribed by said act, to any clerk of a general, special or township election.

"The following shall be the form of the oath or affirmation to be taken by each inspector, viz: 'I (A. B.) do——that I will duly attend to the ensuing election during the continuance thereof, as an inspector, and that I will not receive any ticket or vote from any person, other than such as I shall firmly believe to be, according to the provisions of the constitution and the laws of this commonwealth, entitled to vote at such election, without requiring such evidence of the right to vote as is directed by law, nor will I vexatiously delay or refuse to receive any vote from any person who I shall believe to be entitled to vote as aforesaid, but that I will in all things truly, impartially and faithfully perform my duty therein, to the best of my judgment and abilities, and that I am not directly, nor indirectly, interested in any bet, or wager on the result of this election.'

"The following shall be the oath or affirmation of each judge, viz: 'I (A. B.) do——that I will as judge duly attend the ensuing election during the continuance thereof, and faithfully assist the inspectors in carrying on the same; that I will not give my consent that any vote or ticket shall be received from any person other than such as I firmly believe to be, according to the provisions of the constitution and laws of this commonwealth, entitled to vote at such election, without requiring such evidence of the right to vote as is directed by law, and that I will use my best endeavors to prevent any fraud, deceit or abuse, in carrying on the same by citizens qualified to vote, or others, and that I will make a true and perfect return of the said election, and will in all things truly, impartially and faithfully perform my duty respecting the same, to the best of my judgment and abilities, and that I am not directly or indirectly interested in any bet or wager on the result of this election."

"The following shall be the form of the oath or affirmation to be taken by each clerk, viz: 'I (A. B.) do——that I will impartially and truly write down the name of each elector who shall vote at the ensuing election, which shall be given me in charge, and also the name of the township, ward or district, wherein such elector resides, and carefully and truly write down the number of votes that shall be given for each candidate at the election, as often as his name shall be read to me by the inspectors thereof, and in all things truly and faithfully perform my duty respecting the same to the best of my judgment and ability, and that I am not directly or indirectly interested in any bet or wager on the result of this election.'

The qualified electors will take notice of the following act of Assembly, approved 12th day of March, 1863: AN ACT, Regulating the mode of voting at all elections, in the several counties of this Commonwealth.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That in all elections hereafter to be held in this Commonwealth, it shall be unlawful for the judge or inspectors of any such election to receive any ballot, or ballots, from any person, or persons, embraced in the provisions, and subject to the disability, imposed by said act of Congress, approved March third, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, and it shall be unlawful for any such person to offer to vote any ballot, or ballots.

Section 2. That if any such judge and inspectors of election, or any one of them shall receive, or consent to receive, any such unlawful ballot, or ballots, from any such disqualified person, he, or they, so offending, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, in any court of quarter sessions of this commonwealth, he shall, for each offence, be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than one hundred dollars, and to undergo an imprisonment, in the jail of the proper county, for not less than sixty days.

Section 3. That if any person deprived of citizenship, and disqualified as aforesaid, shall, at any election, hereafter to be held in this commonwealth, vote, or tender to the officers thereof, and offer to vote, a ballot, or ballots, any person, so offending, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof, in any court of quarter sessions of this commonwealth, shall, for each offence, be punished in like manner as is provided in the preceding section of this act, in the case of officers of election receiving such unlawful ballot, or ballots.

Section 4. That if any person shall hereafter persuade, or advise, any person, or persons, deprived of citizenship, and disqualified as aforesaid, to offer any ballot, or ballots, to the officers of any election, hereafter to be held in this commonwealth, or shall persuade, or advise, any such officer to receive any ballot, or ballots, from any person deprived of citizenship, and disqualified as aforesaid, such person, so offending, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, in any court of quarter sessions of this commonwealth, shall be punished in like manner as is provided in the second section of this act, in the case of officers of such election receiving such unlawful ballot, or ballots.

YOU ALL

HAVE HEARD OF

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS,

AND

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC.

Prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, Philadelphia.

Their introduction into this country from Germany occurred in 1825.

THEY CURED YOUR

FATHERS AND MOTHERS,

And will cure you and your children. They are entirely different from the many preparations now in the country called Bitters or Tonics. They are no tavern preparation, or anything like one; but good, honest, reliable medicines. They are

The greatest known remedies for

Liver Complaint,
DYSPEPSIA,
Nervous Debility,
JAUNDICE,
Diseases of the Kidneys,
ERUPTIONS OF THE SKIN,

and all Diseases arising from a Disordered Liver, stomach, or

IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD.

Constipation, Flatulence, Inward Piles, Fullness of Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for Food, Fullness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering at the Pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried or Difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when in a Lying Posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the sight, Dull Pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, etc., Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, Constant Imaginings of Evil and Great Depression of Spirits.

All these indicate diseases of the Liver or Digestive Organs, combined with impure blood.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS

is entirely vegetable and contains no liquor. It is a compound of Fluid Extracts. The Roots, Herbs, and Barks from which these extracts are made, are gathered in Germany. All the medicinal virtueus are extracted from them by a scientific Chemist. These extracts are then forwarded to this country to be used expressly for the manufacture of these Bitters. There is no alcoholic substance of any kind used in compounding the Bitters, hence it is the only Bitters that can be used in cases where alcoholic stimulants are not advisable.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC

is a combination of all the ingredients of the Bitters, with PURE Santa Cruz Rum, Orange, etc. It is used for the same diseases as the Bitters, in case where some pure alcoholic stimulus is required. You will bear in mind that these remedies are entirely different from any others advertised for the cure of the diseases named, these being scientific preparations of medicinal extracts, while the others are mere decoctions of rum in some form. The TONIC is decidedly one of the most pleasant and agreeable remedies ever offered to the public. Its taste is exquisite. It is a pleasure to take it, while its life-giving, exhilarating, and medicinal qualities have caused it to be known as the greatest of all tonics.

DEBILITY.

There is no medicine equal to Hoofland's German Bitters or Tonic in cases of Debility. They impart a tone and vigor to the whole system, strengthen the appetite, cause an enjoyment of the food, enable the stomach to digest it, purify the blood, give a good, sound, healthy complexion, eradicate the yellow tinge from the eye, impart a bloom to the cheeks, and change the patient from a short-breathed, emaciated, weak, and nervous invalid, to a full-faced, stout, and vigorous person.

Weak and Delicate Children are made strong by using the Bitters or Tonic. In fact, they are Family Medicines. They can be administered with perfect safety to a child three months old, the most delicate female, or a man of ninety.

These remedies are the best

ever known and will cure all diseases resulting from bad blood. Keep your blood pure; keep your Liver in order, keep your digestive organs in a sound, healthy condition, by the use of these remedies, and no diseases will ever assail you. The best men in the country recommend them. If years of honest reputation go for anything, you must try these preparations.

FROM HON. GEO. W. WOODWARD,

Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.

PHILADELPHIA, March 16, 1867.

I find that "Hoofland's German Bitters" is not an intoxicating beverage, but is a good tonic, useful in disorders of the digestive organs, and of great benefit in cases of debility and want of nervous action in the system.

Yours Truly,
GEO. W. WOODWARD.

FROM HON. JAMES TAOMPSON.

Judge of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.

PHILADELPHIA, April 28, 1866.

I consider "Hoofland's German Bitters" a valuable medicine in case of attacks of Indigestion or Dyspepsia. I can certify this from my experience of it.

Yours, with respect,
JAMES THOMPSON.

FROM REV. JOSEPH H. KENNARD, D. D.,

Pastor of the Tenth Baptist Church, Philadelphia.

DR. JACKSON—DEAR SIR:—I have been frequently requested to connect my name with recommendations of different kinds of medicines, but regarding the practice as out of my appropriate sphere, I have in all cases declined; but with a clear proof in various instances, and particularly in my own family, of the usefulness of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, I depart for once from my usual course, to express my full conviction that for general debility of the system, and especially for Liver Complaint, it is a safe and valuable preparation. In some cases it may fail; but usually, I doubt not, it will be very beneficial to those who suffer from the above causes. Yours, very respectfully,

J. H. KENNARD,
Eigth, below Coates Street.

CAUTION.

Hoofland's German Remedies are counterfeited. The Genuine have the signature of C. M. JACKSON on the front of the outside wrapper of each bottle, and the name of the article blown in each bottle. All others are counterfeit.

Price of the Bitters, $1 per bottle; Or, a half dozen for $5.

Price of the Tonic, $1 50 per bottle; Or, a half dozen for $7 50.

The tonic is put up in quart bottles.

Recollect that it is Dr. Hoofland's German Remedies that are so universally used and so highly recommended; and do not allow the Druggist to induce you to take anything else that he may say is just as good, because he makes a larger profit on it. HO! HURRAH!

Hear the cry for Seymour and Blair,
Rising and swelling and filling the air!
Hear it go down the Atlantic coast,
Like the solemn march of a dauntless host!
Up the sparkling Potomac's shore,
Up the Valley of the Shanandoah,
"O'er the hills and far away,"
Over the graves of Blue and Gray!

Over the coal-fields, fierce and fast,
Over the prairies broad and vast;
Up through Niagara's sullen roar,
Along the Erie and Michigan shore,
Down to the waves of Mexico;
Hear it rush and roar and go!
"Ho! hurrah! for SEYMOUR AND BLAIR!"
The people are shouting it everywhere

THE AMERICAN CONSTITUTION.

September Seventeenth!

Eighty-one years ago to-day, nine years after the Declaration of Independence, and just as the three millions of devoted souls, had passed through the dark hours and severe trials of seven long years of war, the convention of noble patriots and heroes, fresh from the battle-fields of the Revolution, announced the adoption of of orm of government, and the formation of a Constitution, under which the several States could live in Union and harmony, but under which they all retained their sovereignty.

Eighty-one years ago to-day the hallelujahs of three millions of freemen went up to Heaven, and their rejoicings signalled the birth of a new member into the family of nations—told of the inauguration of the American Republic, a Republic destined to be greater in its power and might than the greatest empires of ancient or modern times.

Our retrospective thoughts on this day spread out before our wandering eyes scenes of unexampled magnificence.

It is with wonder and admiration we contemplate the grandeur of our Republican system of Government, and the wisdom which led to the formation of that great charter of freedom—the AMERICAN CONSTITUTION.

Searching through the record pages of all history, we find the greater part of governments the deformed offspring of force and fear, unworthy the consideration of an American. But there are those which claim a higher regard. The greatest establishments which history boasts were those of Sparta, of Athens, and of Rome. So conceited were these peoples in the enjoyment of their supposed liberties that they conceived themselves far above the rest of the human race, which they designated with the degrading title of barbarians. But in all their pride and pomp of liberty, did they furnish such an exhibition to the astonished world, as we to-day contemplate?

The far famed establishment of LYcurgus was introduced by deception and fraud. Under the specious pretense of consulting the oracle concerning his laws, he induced the Spartans to make a temporary experiment of them, and to swear they would suffer no alternation until his return.—Taking an advantage of their scrupulous regard for their oaths, he prevented his return by a voluntary death, thus seeking to secure a proud immortality to his system.

Even Solon, so far from considering himself as employed only to recommend such regulations as might seem necessary to promote the welfare of the Athenian commonwealth, made and promulgated his laws with all the haughty airs of despotic power, and he was afterwards frequently found boasting of his liberality because he did not establish a disposition in his own favor, and reduce his equals to the humiliating condition of his slaves.

And so with Numa. His institutions were not submitted to the free investigation and judgment of Rome, but were received in special communications from the goddess Egeria, and imposed upon the easy faith of the people as the dictates of an inspiration that was divine.

Such was the origin of the most splendid establishments that had been hitherto known, and such were the arts by which they were introduced and made successful.

How different with the American Constitution. Delegates were appointed to deliberate and propose. The result of their deliberations was submitted to the people, who criticised it in the fullest, freest and severest manner. It was discussed by individuals, by public bodies, and by the press—by its enemies and by its friends. The voices of nearly all were in its favor, and State after State fell into line, ratifying, almost unanimously, the Constitution of that Republic which has shone brightest among all in the constellation of nations.

For more than half a century, through peace and war, through sunshine and shadow, through day and through night, under the benign influence of the grand old Democracy, that Constitution has been the life-light of the Republic—our guiding star to peace, happiness and Union.

But there came a change.

The Constitution of our forefathers, the great American charter of liberty and bond of Union, found its enemies in a traitorous mob of fanatics, who—

Burned it!
Spat upon it!
Trampled it under foot!
Tore it in shreds at public meetings!
And pronounced it a covenant with death and an agreement with hell!

These traitors and fanatics were put in the high places of power, and they have brought our great government to the verge of destruction, and left but little remaining of the old Constitution.

We may look about us this anniversary and see the ruin Radicalism has accomplished.

We can see our blessed America, as it was in years agone, safely guided by the Constitution and the Democracy in the way of peace, of prosperity and happiness.—Now, whe have seen the fair face of our country despoiled, the temple of our liberties torn to the ground by Radical outlaws, the Constitution buried, the Union destroyed, and a military despotism arising upon its remains.

We see honest men driven from places of trust and responsibility, and replaced by thieves, plunderers, and petty politicians possessing not the slightest qualification to administer the law or the office to the benefit of any but themselves.

These are the things we contemplate: In the place of Union we have disunion; in the place of the Constitution we have the will of an illegal Congress, in the place of the will of the people we have the will of military despots; in the place of peace we have war and anarchy; in the place of prosperity we have desolation; In the place of free Republican government we have the commencement of a despotism that is to fix the American people on the point of the bayonet, and destroy the last vestige of civil liberty in the land!

Men of America!

As you contemplate these things today—the past and the present—as you reflect upon the beauties of free government, upon the glories of the Constitution, the old Union, and the old flag, do you not feel it your duty to preserve for the coming generations, for their happiness and enjoyment, what was so carefully preserved to you.

Then let us again, on this day, renew our pledges of fealty to them all, and swear by the Eternal, come peace or come war, that Union, that Constitution, and that flag shall go down to posterity, as it came down to us, with not a State nor a star torn from the bright galaxy!

THINK OF IT.

Who that studies the history of our country for the last eight years, examines the state of society, and has observed the progress of public events, can deny that there has been in that brief period of time a fearful decadence in all the elements that go to make up the character of a great and noble people?

A marked change has come upon us. We are pervaded by almost universal public and private demoralization. We have lost respect for law. We have become corrupt in nearly all things. Our legislative halls are hotbeds, in which are grown schemes for plundering the public treasury, for swindling stockholders in railroad corporations, for enriching rings of public robbers in cities, for giving legality to gigantic systems of fraud, and authorizing almost every species of bogus enterprise and confidence operation. It is well understood that anything can be carried through that has money enough in it to warrant the necessary expenditure to meet the modest and virtuous expectations of the people's representatives. Their votes are always in the market in sufficient numbers to enable the highest bidder to control legislation. Seats are sought in this branch of the government on account of the money that is to be made out of them in this way. As in the legislature, so in every other department of the government where advantages can be gained by the bribery of public officials; and the same susceptibility to the charm of money can be found in the executive and administrative branches as in the legislative. Even the courts, and the officers of the courts, are subject to similar influences, and confidence is essentially impaired in the purity and uprightness of the administration of justice. Going down into business circles, fraud and siwndling, defalcation and stealing, prevail to an astounding extent. And in private life, secret vice, and open and shameless depravity, are fostering each other, and making fearful strides towards introducing universal debauchery, and destroying the last hope of society—the purity and sanctity of the home circle.

These things exist to an extent and in a rankness that no pen can describe. They have grown rapidly. They are still growing and as here.

What has brought this great moral ruin upon us?

Beyond all doubt, the Jacobin party!

It has debauched the public mind, and spread infidelity and lawlessness throughout the whole land.

It denounced the Bible, because it was a slaveholders' Bible!

It defied the Constitution, because it was a slaveholders' Constitution!

It trampled on the laws, because they were slaveholders' laws!

It severed the bands of the Union, because it was a Union with slaveholders!

It set on foot armed invasions of States, because they were slaveholding States!

It licensed stealing, robbery and murder, because the victims were slaveholders!

It permitted the most brutal outrages upon the persons of delicate, refined, and high-bred females, because they were the wives and daughters of slaveholders!

It has administered the Government "outside of the Constitution," to insult, degrade and oppress slaveholders, enrich themselves upon what they are robbing from a tax-ridden people, and perpetuate their political power!

It has prostituted the Northern pulpit to the preaching of politics, and the denunciation of slaveholders!

It has turned congregations of pretended religious worshippers into Jacobin clubs, where the voting of the Radical ticket has been the only test of orthodoxy and fellowship, and any degree of moral pollution is overlooked, if this one great essential be not lacking!

It has canonized JOHN BROWN, the horse thief and murderer, and made "CHRIST, and him crucified," secondary, in their worship, to John Brown, and him hung!

All this it has done to persecute and hunt down slave-holders!

And they the same class of men who were the chosen of Israel's God!

Whom Christ received into his church!

Whom the Apostles gathered into the little congregations of His followers in its early days!

And such as these were Washington and his associates, the founders of the Republic which we once so happily enjoyed!

Is it any wonder that the example and influence of a great party, predominant in the country, and wielding all power, inside and "outside of the Constitution," manifesting the spirit, and pursuing the conduct which we have described, have wrought the change that is before us, and which all good men must deplore?

This party has set the example of lawlessness and violence; it has fostered corruption, it has destroyed the purity and moral sense of the people, it has patronized brutality and crime!

We are reaping the bitter fruits of its wicked reign!

Let it perish, that it may do no more evil in the land!

TWO MORE WARS.

The Jacobins have already inflicted upon the American people one war, and that the most gigantic and destructive in all history, in which was engulfed the political liberty of the country.

A War of Sections!

Their triumph in the coming elections will duplicate the public calamities for which they will make themselves responsible. It will precipitate upon us two more wars, either of which may be more direful in its effects, upon persons and society, than the last, and both combined prove more pregnant with horrors than aught which the mind can conceive, or any age of the world has ever experienced.

A War of Races!

This cannot be avoided, if the Jacobins remain in power. It is not possible for them to enforce their policy upon the South, without bringing into conflict the two races, which they are endoavering to mould into their new, composite system of society. Men may theorize as much as they please, and indulge in ideal speculation, forming in imagination the most beautiful fabrics, and working out, upon paper, the most harmonious and happy results. But when they come to encounter hard, stubborn facts, the structure which they haveso deftly built, often falls to the ground, carrying with it destruction to all the interests which it was designed to foster and sustain. Such will be the fact of the Jacobin negro policy in the South. It aims at impossibilities. It encounters invincible obstacles. It attempts what never has been accomplished in the history of the world, the combining in one society, upon terms of civil and political equality, two races of men, the one the highest among all GOD'S creatures known to this earth, and the other almost the lowest, without leading to conflict, and the extermination of one race or the the other, or worse still, the mixing of the two, producing an order of hybrids, partaking of the worst qualities of each and the better qualities of neither, and ending in the lowest degradation, and the final extinction of the mongrel breed in which the two races have been merged.

One of these two results must necessarily follow if the present order of things is to be maintained at the South. It can be the former only. Such a people as the men and women of the South, can never fall so low as to become mongrelized. Whatever else may happen, they will remain distinct and pure while they exist. Then the case to be met, under Jacobin rule, is one of political equality, and a mutual struggle for power, between the two races. They cannot permanently combine in political parties. Rivalry and jealousy would soon produce division and separation so as to make it a question of race against race. It is already operating in that way at the South.—Notwithstanding the great body of the Southern whites have opposed the enfranchisement of the negroes, and the formation of the reconstruction governments, constituting a distinct, white man's party of themselves, while only a meagre minority of whites, including those who have gone from the North, have joined with the blacks, in making up the dominant political parties in those States, already, in the face of a formidable political organization of white men, ready to take advantage of their divisions, the mixed party of whites and blacks, is losing its cohesion, the whites wanting all the offices, and the blacks demanding their share, and the consequence is that the blacks are separating themselves from their carpet-bag and scalawag associates, and resolving to claim all the offices for their own race, and no longer be used as tools by these white renegades and adventurers who have been professing friendship for them only to get office and power. If these white men and black men who had combined together, cannot remain united, and not even the presence of an active, vigilant, determined and powerful foe, can restrain them from quareling among themselves, how can any one hope for any other result than the separation of the two races into two distinct parties, each contending for ascendancy over the other. When it comes to this the collision cannot be far off. Then will ensue a struggle in which one race or the other must perish. This is what it will come to, and all who sustain the Jacobin party make themselves responsible for the horrible consequences which will grow out of a persistence in the enforcement of this criminal policy of negro equality.

A War of classes!

This is another war which the Jacobins will bring upon us. Their determination to legislate so as to grant monopolies, privileges and exemptions to capital, and oppress, plunder and starve labor, will drive the latter to take up arms in self-defence, should all other remedies fail. You cannot reason with a starving people. You cannot restrain them. Nothing will make men so desperate as to feel the pangs of hunger themselves, and see their wives and children starving around them. To this condition is the dominant party bent upon reducing the laboring classes of this country. As things are going on, and if they continue to go as now, the day is not far distant when the issue will be made up between capital and labor, and the struggle will commence.

Then will be completed the catalogue of calamities which the Jacobins, if destined still to hold power, will have inflicted upon the country.

A War of Sections!
A War of Races!
A War of Classes!

THE ONLY ROAD TO PROSPERITY.

Every intelligent business man must see, that this country cannot be restored to the prosperity which the numbers of its population, the enterprise, ingenuity and skill of its people, the vastness of its territory, the the fertility of its soil, the diversities of its climate, and the varity of its productions, ought to produce, until that large section which, prior to the war, furnished in its great staples, the chief basis of our foreign and domestic exchanges—giving employment to our shipping, business to our merchants, occupation to our mechanics, and taking in return for its own exports, or purchasing with the proceeds of their sale our manufactures, the produce of the dairies of the middle and Eastern States, and the horses, mules, meat and grain of the West shall be restored to contentment and order, placed upon a basis of permanent peace, and given an opportunity to establish a system of industry which shall be efficient, reliable and successful. Unless these conditions can be fulfilled, there can be no return to the prosperity of former days.

What hinders the restoration of the several sections of the country to their former business relations, and the re-establishment of the system of reciprocal exchange and mutual advantage and profit, which in better and hapier times gave our country a golden era, and carried us forward upon a flood-tide of business enterprise and success, such as made all men marvel and admire, and as the world never before saw? No man can doubt the cause. It is as evident and indisputable as the existence of the great globe itself. The Jacobin party has destroyed the system of industry formerly existing at the South, which was the source of the marvelous production of that section, and contributed so largely to the building up and successful prosecution of the business enterprises of the whole country, and will not allow the mischief it has done to be repaired by the adoption of any wise and practicable measures. Whether or not the relations between the whites and the negroes of the South, which the Jacobins have broken up, were better or worse than the best system of free labor which can be established between the same two parties, we have our own decided opinion.—But it is a question which need not now be discussed. It is enough to say, that the Jacobin party is preventing the resumption of steady, contented, and reliable labor, on the part of the negroes, without this, the crops of the South cannot be successfully cultivated and harvested. Until this end can be secured, there can be no improvement in the material interests of the country.

The Jacobins are not satisfied with having emancipated the negroes. That could, perhaps, have been got over without any serious interruption to labor, or shock to business. We have our doubts about it. But we will assume that this could have been done, for the sake of going on with what we have to say. Had the two races been left to themselves, and allowed to adjust their new relations as they could mutually agree, it is very likely that a reasonable amount of labor, and a fair yield of agricultural staples, might have been got out of the new order of things. But the Jacobins have not regarded the negro as a laborer. Their policy has no reference to him as a laborer. They ignore his existence as a laborer. They have other uses for him. They are operating upon him and fixing his status, solely as a political agent, for their use and benefit. And in doing this, they spoil him as a laborer. In making him a politician, and in several States placing him in a position to rule the whites, and in all of them converting him into a political equal and co-ruler with them, they have puffed him up, given him an undue sense of his importance—an impression which the negroes, of all races are the most ready to take on—led him to spurn the idea of taking employment as a servant under men over whom he is taught that he has become the political master, and utterly demoralized him for all useful purposes in the general enconomy of society.

This it is which keeps the South unsettled, and prevents the resumption of her industry and production. It will continue to have this effect so long as the Jacobin experiment of reconstruction shall be continued. It will keep the blacks too self important, irregular and unreliable for laborers, and the whites discontented, hopeless of material improvement, and determined to resist and throw off the system of usurpation and oppression which has been imposed upon her, at the earliest posible moment, and by whatever means she can make available to that end.

The election of Grant will not remove, but will only continue and intensify the evils and disorders growing out of this condition of things. There is but one remedy open to us in this emergency. Set aside the reconstruction policy, and let society at the South settle down into its natural order. Then we shall have peace and prosperity. We can secure them no other way. Let no man be deceived by representations to the contrary. From the very nature of things a Jacobin triumph can only perpetuate the abominations which Jacobinism has produced. It is as true in public affairs, as it is in nature, that like produces like. Let thoughtful men take heed.

BEDFORD COUNTY!

Right Side up as Usual!

The Democracy of old Bedford, emerge from the fierce and terrible struggle, covered with glory. Every district in the county has done well, and at present we do not choose to discriminate between them. All honor to the dauntless men who have fought the battle against the great odds which were against them.

We have the following returns:

The Democratic majority in the county, last year, was 339, showing a handsome gain.

THE CONGRESSIONAL TICKET.

Very close has been the run between Kimmell and Cessna. The result is about as follows:

	Kimmell.	Cessna.
Adams	320 maj.
Bedford	336 "
Franklin	250 "
Fulton	335 "
Somerset		1300
	1241	1241
	Cessna's maj. 59

The above returns are considered reliable. A most gallant fight has been made by the Democracy of this Congressional district, and especially by the Democrats of Bedford county. The meagre majority by which Cessna has squeezed through, cost that delectable specimen of modern Radicalism, at least $10,000, in round numbers. It is a shame that such a fellow should represent the people of the Sixteenth District in Congress, and that he should become that representative through the influence of money. The Democrats who voted for him can repent of their error at their leisure.

THE RESULT.

At the present writing we are unable to say positively how the State has gone. We believe it to be very close. The Radicals claim it by a small majority. Allegheny county gives about 8,000 Radical majority; Lancaster county about 5,800; Erie 2,900; Lawrence 1,900. Philadelphia is reported at 3,000 Democratic. The Democratic candidate for Mayor has been elected in Philadelphia. York gives 3100 Democratic; Berks 6,500; Wayne 700. No matter what may be the result, it is our duty and the duty of every Democrat, to renew the effort to redeem the country from Radical thraldom. Let us prepare for the battle on the first Tuesday of November and vote for the principles we so dearly prize. Let us do our duty and commit the rest to God.

CAKE DEFEATED.

Another Radical Cake is dough.—Col. Conner, Dem., is elected in the Lebanon and Schuylkill Congressional district, over H. L. Cake, present member, and Radical candidate.

The announcement that "Hon. Peleg B. Pilkins, who has for twenty years occupied a position in one of our leading public institutions, has come out for Grant and Colfax," created intense Radical joy in Indiana, until it transpired that the Penitentiary was the "institution" in which Pilkins had held a position for so long, and from which he had just "come out."

SEYMOUR!

GRAND MASS CONVENTION!

Immense Assemblage of People!

4,000 PEOPLE IN COUNCIL!

The largest Procession Ever Witnessed in Bedford!

It Outnumbers the Radical Affair of Tuesday two to one, by Actual Count!

Radical Procession on Tuesday, 71 vehicles, 451 persons; Democratic Procession yesterday, 151 vehicles, 1010 persons.

The whole town encircled by Wagons and People!

Bedford in a halo of glory, in banners, flags and devices!

Great Speeches by Gov. Swann, of Maryland, and Gen. Richard Coulter!

The enthusisam of 1844 inspires the people--Seymour and Blair the popular choice, and Kimmell to be elected by a handsome majority.

The Grand Democratic Mass Convention in this place, on yesterday, exceeded in point of numbers and enthusiasm any thing of the sort ever witnessed in Bedford. The procession numbered 151 vehicles and 1010 persons by actual count. There were counted besides, some 50 vehicles, which did not join in the parade. It is estimated that about 4,000 people were present. Capt. Thos. H. Lyons acted as Chief Marshal, with Serg't Phil. Huzzard, Phil. Leonard, John H. Cook, Josiah Haley, Harrison Lehman, Wm. Adams, James, Sill, P. G. Morgart, and others whose names have not been reported to us, as assistants. The procession wound about the town, until it extended almost completely around it. The delegation from the upper end contained a wagon, tastefully decorated, in which were seated thirty seven beautiful young ladies, clad in white, representing all the States. This wagon was drawn by twenty white horses, on which were seated twenty voters as riders. This delegation alone equaled the whole Radical procession of last Tuesday. The delegation from Colerain was a very fine one, and also had a wagon beautifully decorated, in which were seated the prettiest girls of that region representing the several states. The eastern delegation was a grand success. The Democrats of Bloody Run and vicinity are a gallant band, and always up and doing. One of the banners bore this device—"Cessna's last pass—On the Salt River line," and on one wagon there was a dilapidated bureau from which protruded the heads of a number of small darks. This created much amusement. Along the whole line there was the greatest enthusiasm, cheer after cheer going up, as the procession passed along its route.

After the parade the multitude assembled in the square, and the meeting was organized by the appointment of that veteran Democrat, JOHN M'CLINTOCK, Sr., as President, with a large number of Vice Presidents and Secretaries, for whose names, we are sorry to say, we have no room in this report. GOV. THOMAS SWANN, of Baltimore, was then introduced to the meeting, and delivered a most powerful and convincing speech. GEN. RICHARD COULTER was next announced. The General made a very able and eloquent speech, which was listened to with great pleasure and approbation by the vast assemblage. Gen. Coulter is one of the most distinguished soldiers of the country. He will cast his first Democratic vote this fall. The meeting then adjourned with loud and prolonged cheers for Seymour, Blair, Kimmell and the whole Democratic ticket.

A meeting was held in the Court House at night, which was also addressed by Gen. Coulter and Gov. Swann.

ROORBACK!

The Bedford Inquirer of last week in a flaming announcement, illustrated with flag and cannon, announced that the Radicals have gained "10,000 in Connecticut!" A more bare-faced, shameless, atrocious, miserable and contemptible lie, was never before set up in type. The very contrary is the case. The Democrats have carried a majority of the towns in Connecticut for the first time in 15 years. They have made gains in all the large cities and towns except New Haven, where the Democratic majority is so large that it was not necessary to poll more than half the vote, and yet the Democrats carried the city by 1,000 majority. Mark you, this was only an election for town officers, corresponding to the Spring elections in Pennsylvania, and yet Connecticut shows a Democratic majority of 5,000, which is a gain of 3,000 over last Spring. Lutz is a liar and is trying to infuse a little spirit into his party, by making false statements in regard to this little town election. "Drowning men will catch at straws."

We give the latest telegraphic reports from Connecticut as follows:

[Special Dispatch to the World.]

NEW HAVEN, Conn., October 5.—The town election to-day throughout the State, with few exceptions, show Democratic gains on the vote of last spring. New Haven gives a handsome Democratic gain in proportion to the vote polled. Hartford gives nearly 400 gain on last spring's vote. Barkhamstead, the hot-bed of Radicalism, goes Democratic for the first time. In Norwich the Democracy made no effort except in the Third Ward, where an animated contest was maintained, and the Ward goes Democratic by 41 majority. The general results are more than satisfactory to the Democracy, and indicate that the State will cast her electoral vote for Seymour and Blair by an increased vote over English's majority of last spring. The Jackson Club are parading the streets with torch-light processions over the result.

HARTFORD, Conn., October 5.—Hartford, 720 Democratic majority—last fall, 328. Barkhamstead, a gain of 50.—Clinton, 250 Democratic majority.—Democrats gain largely in every direction.

HARTFORD, Conn., October 4.—Litchfield, 104; gain, 40, Bristol, 120; gain, 65. Milford, 180; gain 100. All Democratic.

FAIRFIELD, October 5. This old Republican town gives "109 Democratic majority." Republican since the party was born; it gave 187 Republican majority in 1865, and 35 Republican majority in 1867; 25 Democratic in the spring 1668, and in the fall of 1868 109 Democratic. Let us have peace.

NEW HAVEN, October 5.—Returns from town elections held to-day show a very small vote. Democrats carry all large cities and gain several towns.

HARTFORD, Conn., October 5.—Majority in Hartford near 800, a gain on last fall of over 400. New Haven gives about 1,000, which is more than last fall, and all they wanted now. They will give 2,500 in November. In towns from every county the Democrats gain largely, and returns show that Connecticut is Democratic on the general ticket 5,000 majority, a gain of 3,200 from last April.

FALLS VILLAGE, Conn., October 5.—Salisbury, one hundred (100) Democratic majority; Norwalk, fifteen (15); Cornwall, fifty-five (55) Democratic majority; Canaan, eighty-one (81) Democratic majority.

The Hartford Times says: In the scattering returns from various counties the Democrats gain largely, showing that had there been a general ticket, they would have given 5,000 majority.

Old CONNECTICUT is right side up! According to a report sent us by the Associated Press, at the town elections held yesterday the Democracy carried the State by 5,000 majority! This is 3,000 better than last Spring, when we doubled our majority of the year before.

Our own special despatches, which are very full, hardly justify the hope of so large a majorsty as the report to which the Associated Press gives currency; but it is certain that we gain everywhere with the exception of Stamford and one or two other small places were our friends were caught napping. So hurrah for CONNECTICUT! At her present rate of progress she will be the banner State of the Democracy. Old KENTUCKY must look out for her laurels.

Now for PENNSYLVANIA. If our friends there do but half as well, HORATIO SEYMOUR is certain to be the next President of the United States.—"What answer?"—World.

NEWS IN BRIEF.

MEMPHIS, October 10.—At the colored Methodist Church, in Gayoso street, this afternoon, a negro fired a pistol at a dog which was sitting on the steps. A policeman came up and attempted to arrest him, when he was fired at. The congregation then rushed out and an indiscriminate fight took place, the police leaving in haste. Upon returning with reinforcements of other members of the force and citizens, the negroes fled. Although some thirty shots were fired no one was hurt.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., October 11.—A negro named Steve Torrence was arrested last night by detectives on the charge of complicity in the murderous assault on Mr. Alexander, and the burning of his house, near this city, some weeks since. To-day he confessed that he was one of a party which was regularly organized for plunder, and of which Doc. Woods, who was recently captured, after a desperate resistance and being severely wounded, was the captain.

OVATION TO GENERAL M'CLELLAN.

Tremendous Procession.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 8.—The reception of General M'Clellan was the grandest, most enthusiastic and heartfelt ovation ever tendered to any individual in Philadelphia. At an early hour the various societies, clubs and delegations began to assemble on Broad street, and as the hour of noon drew nigh that vast thoroughfare presented a scene once witnessed never to be forgotten. As far as the eye could reach could be seen a vast sea of people, surging and rolling in mighty numbers.

The following organizations participated: The Young Men's Keystone club, Americus club, Fox Campaign club, Hickory clubs of the Twelfth ward, Sheppard Campaign clubs, M'Clellan's Guards, composed of soldiers and sailors, and the various Democratic ward organizations. A butchers' column of about seven hundered men was a prominent feature of the procession.

The Seven divisions were as follows: First, a mounted cavalcade headed by the Soldiers' City Executive Committee. The Second, a guard of honor, the reception committee, the State committee and invited guests.—The Third, organizations of soldiers and sailors from distant States and from Philadelphia. The Fourth, organizations of soldiers and sailors in Philadelphia. The Fifth, firemen.—The Sixth, Civic clubs and associations south of Market street, and the Seventh, Civil clubs and association North of Market street, all under command of Gen. M'Candless, Grand Marshal.

At about half-past one the immense procession took up its line of march over the following route:—Countermarched on Broad street to Spring Garden, up Spring Garden to Eighteenth, down Eighteenth to Spruce, down Spruce to Broad, up Broad to Chestnut, down Chestnut to Fourth when the divisions moved to the right and left, and then dismissed. The procession escorted Gen. M'Clellan in a barouche to the Continental Hotel, where he received them from the balcony.

Chestnut street never before presented such an animated scene. As the procession moved past the hotel, cheer after cheer went up for Little Mac, and greetings of welcome went forth from every lip. On the banners of the different organizations were displayed mottoes expressive of the great regard and high estimation in which the hero of Antietam is held. "Give us back our old commander." "The soldier in war and the citizen in peace," "Honor to whom honor is due." "Welcome Little Mac," and other mottoes of like character were greeted with applause on all sides. It was dark before the procession had all passed the hotel. It occupied two hours and a half in passing a given point, and was composed of not less than 20,000 men.

At the Continental hotel Gen. M'Clellan spoke as follows:

SPEECH OF GEN. M'CLELLAN.

MY FELLOW CITIZENS: You have today honored me with your presence. Will you accept my earnest and heartfelt thanks. All that I have to offer you in return for this honor is that I will remember this occasion so long as memory serves me. My comrades, I can receive no more welcome greeting, even in this my native city, than the sound of the same cheers that have so often met me in the camp, on the march and upon the field of battle.—They recall a strange and most eventful history. Here on this spot, filled with the earliest and peaceful associations of my childhood, they arouse stern and stiring memories of a chequered career. The place where I stand recalls to my mind the quiet days of peaceful life. The faces I see and the voices I hear carry me back to the realities of war, and the battle scenes of your sufferings, fortitude and glory. Upon the days that tried men's souls these shouts were an earnest that I could implicitly rely upon the heroism and devotion of army. They always evinced that love and sympathy that united us. When I parted from you on that sad November day that none of us can ever forget, your voices showed to me that under new commanders you would lose none of your ancient heroism. Voices echoed from Malvern, South Mountain, and Antietam certain guarantees for your conduct at Fredericksburg, Chancellorsville, Gettysburg, the Wilderness and crowning victory of Richmond. Soldiers, whether of my own old army of the Potomac or of the gallant armies of the West, I thank you, from the depths of a soldier's heart, for this welcome. So long as I am upon this earth I cannot forget the bonds that unite us to the memory of our fallen comrades, of perils shared in common, and the great love and confidence you have given me. Come what may, I am sure that in the future, as in the past, we will ever be found side by side in war as then, in peace as now, for one country.

THE MERCERSBURG REVIEW, for October, 1868, is upon our table. Its contents are as follows: The State as an Element in Civilization, by John H. Oliver, Esq., A. WE have somewhere read the statement of premiums paid out in one year by a first-class LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY. It was a suggestive and interesting table. There were persons in all classes of life, and from every part of the country. There was the poor man, whose scanty earnings only permitted him to pay a policy of five hundred dollars. Well, death came to him, and instead of the Almshouse for his little ones, there was something with which to clothe the babes and send the eldest boy to school. There was the seamstress who had saved enough to insure a thousand dollars for for the poor old mother. She dropped into the grave—faded by hard work, we presume, but she left something behind to lighten the dark and declining days of the one she most dearly loved. There was the young business man who took a little portion of his profits and secured an Insurance of $10,000. The speedy messenger called him in the begining of his career, but enough was behinnd to enable his family to live plainly and comfortably. This table was the record of well-recompensed prudence. No human foresight can avoid business disaster, at times, nor postpone the hour of death. When we see how easy it is for every man to put away something against a rainy day, we feel that it is almost criminal to neglect it. Especially is this so when we have a company like the National Life Insurance Company, whose advertisement is elsewhere published. Here is a company with a million of dollars paid-up capital. Its directors are men of national reputation for integrity and honor. It presents every feature of of the best insurance companies, together with new features which we find in no other company. Reader, for a little over four cents a day you can insure your wife and children the payment of a thousand dollars, if you should die in a month. Let your days be long or short, you have no right to neglect this precaution.

OBITUARY—HON. HOWELL COBB.—Howell Cobb, whose sudden death at the Fifth avenue Hotel, New York, was noticed in our telegrams of Saturday, was born at Cherry Hill, in Jefferson county, Georgia, Sept. 9, 1815. When a child, his father removed to Athens, Georgia, where he has since resided. He graduated at Franklin College in 1834; he studied law and was admitted to the bar in 1836. In 1837 he received the appointment of Solicitor-General of the Western Circuit, which he held four years, and he was elected a representative to Congress in 1842 having been re-elected in 1844, 1846 and 1848, and during his latter term he was elected Speaker.—On his retirement from Congress he was chosen Governor of Georgia. In 1855 he was again elected to Congress, and on the accession of Mr. Buchanan to the Presidency, Gov. Cobb went into his Cabinet as Secretary of the Treasury. He took a prominent part in the rebellion of 1861, and was a member of the Confederate Congress and a brigadier general of the Confederate army.

NEW YORK, August, 7th, 1868

MR. EDITOR:—Several of your correspondents, very old and respectable no doubt, seem to be wonderfully exercised as to the origin of our PLANTATION BITTERS. So long as these Bitters are all that we represent them to be, we do not know that it makes any difference from whom they come, or from whence they originated; but for the information of the public generally, and old Capt. Wentz in particular, we will say that he told the truth, and that these Bitters originated in the West India Islands—that many of the ingredients have been favorably used for over a century, now, and our own. The rum and other materials are the same, and as your correspondent says, a better Bitters and Tonic is not made. We recommend them particularly for dyspeptics, fever and ague, debility, loss of appetite, and in all cases where a tonic and stimulant is required.

MAGNOLIA WATER.—Superior to the best imported German Cologne, and sold at half the price.

S. D & H. W. SMITH'S AMERICAN ORGANS.—The Messrs. Smith are the oldest reed instrument manufactures in Boston. They have from the first, striven to make as good work as human hands could produce, and have been wide awake for all valuble improvements in such instuments. They produce a great range of styles, varying in form and capacity, adapting them to parlor, school, church or hall, as may be desired. The many patent for improvements, owned exclusively by these manufacturers, enable them to control the manufacture of this peculiar Organ so that no other reed instrument of whatever name or claim can compare with them in perfection. It is only necessary to try them, to be satisfied of this.—Vt. Musical Journal.

BEAUTIFUL and uniform of excellence, a well-known, safe and speedy agent for restoring gray hair to its original color, for preventing the loss of the hair, for promoting its healthy growth and increasing its beauty, a gradual but certain cure for baldness, and an essential toilet requisite for all who prize that choicest gift of nature, a bountiful supply of hair: the above is said by all who use Mrs. S. A. Allen's Improved (new style) Hair Restorer or Dressing, (in one bottle.) Every Druggist sells it. Price One Dollar.

WE are assured that the firm of EASTMAN & KENDALL, 65 Hanover Street, Boston, Mass., advertised in our columns, is trustworthy and reliable. For 10 cts. they send a patent pen fountain, and a check describing an article to be sold for $1. Their club system of selling goods is becoming quite popular, particularly with the ladies. It is worthy of a trial.—Buffalo Gazette.

CHICAGO sent forward to the East last year, 48,000,000 bushels of grain, of which ninety-one per cent. went by water, and nine per cent. by rail. Of the millions of bushels of corn which were forwarded East from the same point, ninety-nine per cent. went by water. And all this in face of the four and one-half months of suspension of navigation during the season.

SUNDAY SCHOOL PIC-NIC.—Pursuant to previous arrangements, the managers and pupils of the "Point Sabbath School," in Napier township, assembled at the school-house at an early hour on Saturday, 3d inst., and marched to Peter Winegardner's saw-mill where preparations had been made for the occasion, in the grove adjacent; but in consequence of the inclemency of the weather, they had fitted up a table in Mr. Winegardner's barn, whither they marched, preceded by music by Mr. Joseph Moore & Sons. The pic-nic was gotten up without the least excitement in the neighborhood, and from the appearance of the weather in the morning, many thought it would be a failure, but upon counting heads in the barn, there were about one hundred and thirty persons present. The school was then addressed by Rev's Decker and Edwards, of Schellsburg in a very appropriate manner. At the close of the addresses, the pupils were invited to partake of a very sumptuous dinner provided by the citizens, and then the officers and teachers and spectators also partook of the same bountiful repast, there having been ample provisions made for all. Much praise is due to the liberality of the citizens, and particularly to the ladies for the splendid cakes, pies, custards, chickens and indeed every delicacy that could be desired on the occasion, and also to the children for their good deportment and to that staunch old Democrat, Mr. Winegardner, who is ever ready and willing to lend a helping hand in any emergency, and particularly on such occasions, devoting not only his time, but his means, to add to the comfort of all his neighbors. I must not pass over the drink with the eatables; the company were treated to good coffee and lemonade in abundance. After having partaken of the bountiful supply, the whole assembly passed the hours pleasantly until four o'clock when they separated for their respective homes, all well pleased with the hilarities of the day. May we all live to enjoy another pic-nic next year. SPECTATOR.

THE October number of "Young America" which closes the volume for the second year of this popular little periodical, comes to us as bright and gay as ever, flourishing a grand top residence called a "villa," rich in stories, poetry, pictures, and puzzles, closing the interesting juvenile adaptation of the famous story of Robison Crusoe, and promising a brilliant attraction in the shape of a new story of out door life, for boys, by Geo. J. Varney, whom not a few persons think superior as a writer for boys to Oliver Optic. Hurry up with your pennies, children. You will all want Young America this year—for, with the November No., it is to be enlarged, and, according to the publishers, "otherwise improved." Address W. Jennings Demorest, 473 Broadway, N. Y. $1.50 per year, with a premium.

DEMOREST'S MONTHLY.—Every lady wishes for at least one magazine, and husbands and fathers can find no other in the whole range of periodical literature that will prove so useful, so welcome, or so good an investment as Demorest's. It is fashionable without being frivolous, full of good, sensible suggestions, and of really valuable information in regard to dress, the household, and whatever pertains to woman's work. Send for it—the price is merely nominal, $3, with an honest premium. Published at 473 Broadway, New York.

MASS MEETING.—The mass meeting in Woodburry was a magnificent affair. We have received a glowing description of it from a correspondent, which, for want of room, we are unable to publish. It was the largest meeting ever held in Woodbury. Hon. J. B. Noble was chosen President. Col. J. H. Filler made one of the happiest speeches of his life. O. E. Shannon, Esq., followed with one of his masterly speeches on the financial question.

St Clairsville.—The Democrats of St Clair and Union turned out in large numbers to the mass meeting in St Clairsville on Saturday last. The demonstration which they made was very fine. On one wagon a hickory pole, Sixty feet long, was carried by stalwart voters. B. R. Henderson, Esq., was elected President, with a long list of Vice Presidents and Secretaries, whose names were not given us. The meeting was addressed by Col. J. H. Filler, O. E. Shannon, Esq., and B. F. Meyers.

Gapville.—A meeting of the Democracy of E. Providence, was held on Monday night last, at Gapville. The attendance was good. A lot of Radical scallawags were on hand to imitate their brethren at Camilla, but failed in their efforts to get up a row. The meeting was addressed by J. W. Dickerson and J. G. Fisher.

MEETING AT RIDDLESBURG.—On last Friday evening a large Democratic meeting was held at Riddlesburg. M. A. Hunter was elected President, Jacob M. Barret and William Mobus, Vice President and George C. Buckle, Jr. and Thomas Keating, Secretaries. Speeches were made by William Hartley and J. W. Dickerson, Esqs.

DESCRIPTIVE.—The Grecian bend is made to cover about every attitude and movement that can be named. It includes the stagger of a tipsy dunce, the wabble of a graceless cook, the awkwardness of a lubberly lout, and the mincing, wriggling gait and inclination of the classic miss just opening into womanhood.

ATTENTION is called to the advertisement of Thomas & Co., Book publishers Agts., Pittsburgh, Pa., which will be found in another column.

ST. LOUIS and IRON MOUNTAIN RAILROAD COMPANY'S Seven per cent. first Mortgage Bonds. February and August Coupons. The earnings of the completed road to Pilot Knob are now more than the interest on the entire mortgage. The proceeds of these bonds are adding to the security every day. Over $8,000,000 have been spent on the property, and not over $2,000,000 of bonds issued thus far. The constantly increasing traffic of carrying ore, with the prospect of controling all the travel from St. Louis to the Southern States, insures an enormous revenue. The Directors own 8-10 of the stock for investment, and are interested to enrich the property as well as to economize its expenses.
THOS. ALLEN, President, St. Louis, Mo.
We, the undersigned, cordially recommend these seven per cent. mortgage bonds, of the St. Louis and Iron Mountain Railroad, as a good security. The revenue of the road will be large, and the administration of the affairs of the Company is in capable and experienced hands, and is entitled to the greatest confidence of the public.
JAMES S. THOMAS, Mayor of St. Louis.
JOHN J. ROE, Pres't St. Louis Chamber of Commerce.
E. W. FOX, Pres't St. Louis Board of Trade.
BARTON BATES, Pres't North Mo. Railroad.
J. H. BRITTON, Pres't Nat. Bank of the State of Mo.
WM. L. EWING, Pres't of the Mer. N. B. of St. Louis.
GEO. H. REA, Pres't Second Nat. Bank of St. Louis.
JAS. B. EADS, Chief Eng. St. Louis & Ill. Bridge Co.
GEO. W. TAYLOR, Pres't Pacific Railroad (of Mo)
WM. TASSIG, Pres't Traders' Bank, St. Louis.
JOHN R. LIONBERGER, Pres't T. N. Bank, St Louis.
ADOLPHUS MEIER, Vice Pres't U. Pacific Railway.
ROBERT BARTA, Pres't German Savings Institution.
Coupons payable in the city of New York. A limited number of the above named Bonds for sale at Eighty-five. Parties living out of the city can remit by draft or express, and the bonds will be returned by express free of charges. We invite the attention of capitalists and others to them, as, in our opinion, a very desirable investment, destined to rank as a first-class security. Descriptive Pamphlets, Maps and information can be had on application to TOWNSEND, WHELEN & CO., No. 369 Walnut st., Philadelphia, Agents of the St. Louis and Iron Mountain R. R. Co.

MANHOOD: HOW LOST, HOW RESTORED. Just published, a new edition of DR. CULVERWELL'S CELEBRATED ESSAY on the radical cure (without medicine) of SPERMATORRHŒA, or Seminal Weakness, Involuntary Seminal Losses, Impotency, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impediments to Marriages, etc.; also, CONSUMPTION, EPILEPSY and FITS, induced by self-indulgence or sexual extravagance.

☞ Price in a sealed envelope, only 6 cents.

The celebrated author, in this admirable essay, clearly demonstrates from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately, and radically.

☞ This Lecture should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land

Sent, under seal, in a plain envelope, to any address, postpaid, on receipt of six cents, or two post stamps. Also, Dr Culverwell's Marriage Guide, price 25 cents. Address the Publishers,

AYER'S
HAIR VIGOR,
FOR THE RENOVATION OF THE HAIR.

THE GREAT DESIDERATUM OF THE AGE.

A dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for preserving the hair. Faded or gray hair is soon restored to its original color and the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed. But such as remain can be saved for usefulness by this application. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit but not harm it. If wanted merely for a

HAIR DRESSING,

nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts longer on the hair, giving it a rich glossy lustre and a grateful perfume.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA,

FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD.

The reputation this excellent medicine enjoys, is derived from its cures, many of which are truly marvellous. Inveterate cases of Scrofulous disease, where the system seemed saturated with corruption, have been purified and cured by it. Scrofulous affections and disorders, which were aggravated by the scrofulous contamination until they were painfully afflicting, have been radically cured in such great numbers in almost every section of the country, that the public scarcely need to be informed of its virtues or uses.

Scrofulous poison is one of the most destructive enemies of our race. Often, this unseen and unfelt tenant of the organism undermines the constitution, and invites the attack of enfeebling or fatal diseases, without exciting a suspicion of its presence. Again, it seems to breed infection throughout the body, and then, on some favorable occasion, rapidly develops into one or other of its hideous forms, either on the surface or among the vitals. In the latter, tubercles may be suddenly deposited in the lungs or heart, or tumors formed in the liver, or it shows its presence by eruptions on the skin, or foul ulcerations on some part of the body. Hence the occasional use of a bottle of this Sarsaparilla is advisable, even when no active symptoms of disease appear. Persons afflicted with the following complaints generally find immediate relief, and, at length, cure, by the use of this Sarsaparilla: St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Sore Eyes, Sore Ears, and other eruptions or visible forms of Scrofulous disease. Also in the more concealed forms, as Dyspepsia, Dropsy, Heart Disease, Fits, Epilepsy, Neuralgia, and the various Ulcerous affections of the muscular and nervous systems.

Syphilis or Venereal and Mercurial Diseases are cured by it, though a long time is required for subduing these obstinate maladies by any medicine. But long continued use of this medicine will cure the complaint. Leucorrhœa or Whites, Uterine Ulcerations and Female Diseases, are commonly soon relieved and ultimately cured by its purifying and invigorating effect. Minute Directions for each case are found in our Almanac, supplied gratis. Rheumatism and Gout, when caused by accumulations of extraneous matters in the blood, yield quickly to it, as also Liver Complaints, Torpidity, Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver, and Jaundice, when arising, as they often do, from the rankling poisons in the blood. This SARSAPARILLA is a great restorer for the strength and vigor of the system. Those who are Languid and Listless, Despondent, Sleepless, and troubled with Nervous Apprehensions or Fears, or any of the affections symptomatic of Weakness, will find immediate relief and convincing evidence of its restorative power upon trial.

DOUBLE-ACTING, NON-FREEZIN
FORCE PUMP,

Patented August 28th, 1865, and awarded the PREMIUM at the Pennsylvania, Ohio, and New York State Fairs, in 1866.

The advantages claimed for this pump over all other patent pumps are as follows, viz: The valves, are composed entirely of cast iron, rendering it the most durable of any pump yet patented. This pump is so constructed that it never freezes, the water dropping back to the level with the water in the well. It is easily worked, and can be used, by attaching hose, in washing wagons, horses, watering gardens, and in case of fire is of valuable service, as water may be thrown to the distance of from sixty to seventy feet in the air from it by the use of a small section of hose
